

Secretary Job Description
Gateway Arch East Music Teachers Association
Submitted (give date and name)

Secretary:

Is responsible for all recordkeeping functions; prepares and reads the minutes from each meeting, counts and records any votes and election results, handles official correspondence, sends out notifications of meetings and keeps records regarding membership. The office of secretary is crucial to the functioning of many organizations.